

CRANMER

The Green Room

Welcome

How to find us

Home Farm, a former Victorian dairy farm is set in 175 acres of privately owned rolling Norfolk farmland. Whether you are here for an important conference meeting, team building event or brainstorming session our individual location offers space to breathe and an opportunity to think creatively. The Green Room offers peaceful comfort for a productive enjoyable and memorable corporate event. Alternatively for family gatherings and celebrations The Green Room offers self-contained space away from individual holiday properties ideal for private dining for those larger family groups staying onsite.

Set in the tranquil Norfolk countryside and close to the stunning heritage north Norfolk coastline and within easy reach of the bustling cultural and retail hub of Norwich, The Green Room at Cranmer is an inspiring place to be and ideally located for business and leisure. We are just over 2 hours from London 1 hour from Cambridge and 3 hours away from Birmingham with access to mainline railway connections and Norwich International airport.

We are passionate about taking positive and meaningful steps to reducing our impact on the environment and our green ethos is a central part of developing our business for a sustainable future.

We hope to welcome you to Cranmer very soon.

Business Meetings

The Green Room combines contemporary and traditional features and is equipped with state of the art technology. Situated on the ground floor and wheelchair accessible - the meeting room is self-contained with a small galley kitchen and toilets and can accommodate 15 Boardroom style or 25 theatre style.

Team Building and Break-outs

Take a breather, create some head space - our 175 acres of grounds offer an opportunity to host motivational team building events. We can cater for any type of event and if required we have an events team that can organise on-site or local events or activities to suit your requirements.

Food For Thought

We can provide guests with a choice of catering options sourced from local ingredients - from simple buffet lunches to private dinner parties. Alternatively, visitors can choose to self-cater using the well- equipped galley kitchen. The banqueting table will seat up to 24.

Celebrations and Social Gatherings

For residential business or social events our 8 award winning luxury holiday cottages offer a total of over 30 bed spaces with a choice of 1, 2 or 3 bedroomed stylish properties. Residential guests have use of the luxury indoor heated pool, tennis courts, games room and grounds.

Rest and Relaxation

The Green Room offers a communal space to host special interest breaks, pamper weekends, vintage car clubs, photography workshops, yoga groups, health and well-being breaks. The space is also available to hire for a special event or film showing.

Facilities, Space and More

The Green Room provides flexible modular furniture, AV equipment to hire, free LAN & WIFI, off road parking on site. Opportunities for shooting, walking, cycling, canoe hire, sailing lessons even a special yacht charter around the north Norfolk coast are all within easy reach of Cranmer.
